Message From Your Board

We were made aware of the small number of candy boxes we have out. The money we keep goes towards the special needs projects we do. The rest of the money goes to Civitan International for the Civitan International Research Center in Birmingham. We need more boxes out and more members to service them. This coming week, look in stores and restaurants and see if you see a place to put one. Wanda Simpson is in charge of our program. Get in touch with her and get the box and candy and talk to the manager of the business. Remember these boxes need to be serviced on a regular schedule.

Message from the President

I want to thank you for electing me president. I had not planned on moving up this year but I will try to do my best to make this a very productive year. With all of your help, we can strive to be the best club in South Carolina. Let's bring home all the awards this year from the convention. Misty is working on the scrapbook and I am working on the award booklets. We can do it! Yes we can!

Report on the Claxton fruitcake sales

Ella Messer has done a great job ordering the fruitcake and getting them in the stores. We need to thank these people for putting them in the stores: Ella Messer, Tom Shealy, Dean Hartness, David Simpson, and Leila Long. They will continue to check on the stores and see if the shelves need straightening up and see when we need to put some more in. We had a great year last year. We are planning on an even better year this year.

Tupperware Sale

Some members are taking orders for Tupperware. The club will get a % of the sales. If you want to buy or sell some Tupperware, let Ella know.

The District meeting will be in Myrtle Beach on December 2nd

Reservations need to be made ahead if you plan to spend the night. If you have never been, I understand you will learn a lot and have fun also. These we know now are going: Ella Messer, Dr. Frank and Dr. Misty Konow, David and Wanda Simpson, and Leila Long. Come and enjoy the fun.

A look into December

We will have our Christmas party, Ringing of the Bells, and the angel tree.
